

The Charleston County Bar Basketball League is set to run again this year.

The league is for attorneys, men and women, and will run every Monday night starting February 15, 2016. It is a 10 game regular season and a two round playoff. Games will start at 6:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. and will be played at the John Wesley United Methodist Church located at 626 Savannah Highway in West Ashley. The setup and rules should be nearly the same as years past (four on four half court, referees calling fouls, etc.). You do not need to form a team to join as all players are pooled together with a blind draft (using the survey described below) before the first week of games. Attorneys interested in participating should contact Jim Sullivan at: jsullivan@hnblaw.com

We play with reversible jerseys and will have the same jerseys as years past (maroon) so if you bought a jersey last year and still have it, you will not need to do so this year. If you need a jersey, please respond with your size.

Everyone will also need to sign a waiver. Waivers will be distributed before startup.

The cost to play per player will be $21.00. Please make your check out the Charleston County Bar Association.

If you know an attorney who may want to play, please forward this to them so they can send Jim an email.

Because there will be a blind draft to best and most fairly divide up teams, please include the following information in your email to Jim.

SURVEY

1. Experience? Rate yourself one through seven with one being that you have almost never played, four if you are/were an average player in high school and seven being that you played college ball on any level.
2. Do you play regularly today? Rate yourself one through seven, one being that you do not remember the last time you touched a basketball, four if you play once every couple of weeks and seven if you play almost every single day.
3. Skill level today? Rate yourself one through seven.
4. Year graduated from high school.
5. Height (just trying to avoid teams with five centers or five point guards).
