

Company: Ford Wallace Thomson LLC

How to Apply: Send Resume and Reference to virginia.frances@fordwallace.com

Company:

Ford Wallace Thomson, LLC is a high-caliber law firm located downtown Charleston, South Carolina. Our practice services include healthcare, corporate law, and civil litigation. Whether our clients are Lowcountry locals or overseas corporations, we believe attention to client relationships is a foundational aspect of our business model. This approach drives our high standard of excellence within the workplace and is the catalyst behind our perspective on client service.

Our King Street office provides a convenient and comfortable workplace for this in-person position. We are looking for a motivated and team-oriented associate attorney enthusiastic about the opportunity to grow alongside driven colleagues. If you are interested in joining our team, please attach a resume and include a reference for the position.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Assisting attorneys in both transactional and litigation matters.
- Drafting court filings and transactional documents.
- Legal research and writing.
- Reviewing contracts and assisting with litigation.

Qualifications:

- Licensed South Carolina attorney.
- Ideally 1+ years of experience
- Exceptional communication and time management skills.
- Desire to work in person and ability to work collaboratively.